Re: Patricio Nuno Carrera, et al. v. DT Hospitality Group Inc., et al.
Docket No.: 19-cv-4235 (RA)

Dear Judge Abrams:

This firm represents the Plaintiffs, Patricio Nuno Carrera and Geraldo Marquez, in the above-referenced matter, against Defendants DT Hospitality Group Inc. d/b/a Co Ba Restaurant and Kien Truong, for alleged violations of the Fair Labor Standards Act and New York Labor Law. Defendant Truong has appeared pro se. Defendant DT Hospitality Group Inc. remains pro se as well as an attorney has not filed a notice of appearance on its behalf. As a result of the corporate defendant's failure to have an attorney appear on its behalf, the Court entered an order directing Plaintiffs to serve their motion for default by March 31, 2020. D.E. 27. Plaintiffs now write to request an extension of time to serve their motion for default for the reasons discussed below.

Specifically, Plaintiffs' counsel requires declarations from both Plaintiffs to support their impending motion for default to establish Defendant DT Hospitality's liability and damages. Further, Plaintiffs' counsel must confer with Plaintiffs in order to finalize certain components of their declarations. Unfortunately, Plaintiffs' counsel has been unable to successfully procure signed declarations from the Plaintiffs, despite repeated attempts to do so.¹ Although the cause of the Plaintiffs' circumstances resulting in the delay is currently unknown, the current state of affairs regarding the ongoing pandemic caused by Covid-19 may well have caused disruption in Plaintiffs' personal lives or caused them to work unexpected hours as essential employees, as many are forced to currently do in the restaurant industry. Thus, contrary to this firm's expectations, it has become clear that Plaintiffs' counsel will be unable to procure these declarations by the deadline for the motion for default on March 31, 2020. Accordingly, Plaintiffs' counsel seeks an extension of two weeks to serve Plaintiffs' motion for default in order to procure the necessary declarations in support of their motion.

¹ Additionally, the attorneys and support staff at this firm have been required to work from home during the past weeks due to the work restrictions caused by the Covid-19 pandemic, which has made communications with clients and obtaining signed documents from clients more challenging.

Accordingly, Plaintiffs request that the Court extend their time to serve their motion for default against Defendant DT Hospitality Group from March 31, 2020 to April 14, 2020. Plaintiffs made one prior request for an extension of time to serve their motion for default because Defendants indicated they were assessing whether to file a bankruptcy petition on behalf of DT Hospitality Group, which was granted.² D.E. 24, 27.

Plaintiffs thank the Court for its time and consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,

/S/ David D. Barnhorn, Esq.

Application granted. Plaintiffs shall provide a copy of this Order to Defendant Truong.

SO ORDERED.

Hon. Ronnie Abrams

² As noted in Plaintiffs' prior request for an extension, Defendant Truong intended to file for bankruptcy by mid-March 2020 and was determining whether to file a bankruptcy petition for Defendant DT Hospitality Group. D.E. 24, 27. Defendant Truong's bankruptcy attorney informed the undersigned that Truong's filing has been delayed due to the current Covid-19 pandemic, but was unable to inform the undersigned if Truong had made a final determination whether to file a bankruptcy petition on behalf of Defendant DT Hospitality Group. Despite this uncertainty, Plaintiffs intended to proceed, and still intend to proceed, with serving their motion for default against Defendant DT Hospitality Group as soon as declarations from Plaintiffs can be procured.
